

Congressman Bridenstine Visits Oklahoma Central CU

Friday, September 4, 2015 7:00 AM

Taking advantage of the congressional break, Oklahoma Central Credit Union in Tulsa hosted Congressman Jim Bridenstine (R-OK1) at the main branch Wednesday. Some of the things the congressman talked about were data security, the CFPB, the federal budget, and national defense.

Bridenstine represents Oklahoma's 1st Congressional District, which includes Tulsa and surrounding areas. He was elected in 2012 and ran unopposed in 2014.

Among those in attendance at the event were Mike Moyer, CEO of Red Crown FCU; TTCU VP of Real Estate Operations Dan Newberry, who is also state senator for District 37; Nate Webb, president Oklahoma Credit Union Association; and Oklahoma Central CU executives including CEO Gina Wilson.
